ORANGE RIVER – 3 DAY TRIP

Arrival:

Arrive at our base camp, just across the Namibian border. Our camp manager will be there to welcome you. You may want to take a refreshing swim or play a game of volleyball after your day of travelling.

Supper is served at 7pm. We start getting to know each other around the campfire and 8pm we give a “packing speech”. Here we teach and show you how to pack your luggage, liquid refreshments and personal belongings. This is a good time to ask all those questions that has been building about what to expect on river. Your friendly guide will be more than happy to put all your nerves to rest!

Day 1:

After an early breakfast, your guide will give you a safety talk and equipment demonstration. Here they will teach and show you how to paddle, what to do if you capsize and how to be safe when in a rapid. Before you go onto the river you can fill your cooler box with ice. You will spend most of the morning drifting and getting the hang of paddling! Your first lunch break on the banks of the river, with the majestic surrounding mountains will take your breath away. We continue downstream until we find a campsite where we can camp for the night. Sleep under the star-lit heavens above.

Day 2:

Discover what it is like to wake up in the desert. Each day follows a pattern of languid drifting with the current; hopping in for a swim when you wish; tossing a frisbee; or just lying back and taking it easy. We spend each night at a site of our choice on the banks.

Day 3:

If the river is full and the current is fast, then you will resupply at Sjambok and continue onwards to the collection point at Aussenkehr. If the river is not full you will not have a resupply and will only row until the collection point at Sjambok. Here you may climb up to an abandoned fluorspar mine where you will be rewarded with a huge panorama of the Richtersveldt and Orange River, as it winds its way through the desert.

On this, the last day, you will be picked up at the end point between 2 pm and 4 pm. Well done, if you rafted to Sjambok you did approximately 45km and if you rafted to Aussenkehr you did approximately 60km. A drive through the semi-desert will return us all to Base camp. After a refreshing swim you can enjoy a few sundowners, while the guides prepare supper. You overnight with us in the camp.

Departure day:

After an unforgettable journey on the river, you are free to depart back home after breakfast.
