ORANGE RIVER – 5-DAY RAFTING TRIP

Arrival:

Arrive at our base camp just across the Namibian border, where our camp manager will warmly welcome you. After a day of travel, you might enjoy a refreshing swim or a lively game of volleyball.

Dinner is served at 7 PM, followed by a chance to get to know each other around the campfire. At 8 PM, we'll hold a "packing talk," where we'll guide you on how to pack your luggage, refreshments, and personal items. This is the perfect opportunity to ask any questions you have about what to expect on the river. Our friendly guide will be happy to ease any concerns you may have!

Day 1:

After an early breakfast, your guide will provide a safety briefing and equipment demonstration. You'll learn how to paddle, what to do in case of a capsize, and how to stay safe in rapids. Before hitting the river, you can fill your cooler with ice. Most of the morning will be spent drifting along as you get comfortable with paddling. For your first lunch, you'll enjoy a meal on the riverbanks, surrounded by stunning mountain views. We'll continue downstream until we find the perfect campsite for the night, where you can relax under a starry sky.

Days 2, 3 + 4:

Experience the magic of waking up in the desert. Later, you can hike up to an abandoned fluorspar mine, where you'll be rewarded with breathtaking views of the Richtersveld and the Orange River winding through the landscape. Each day unfolds in a relaxed rhythm—drifting lazily with the current, enjoying a swim whenever you like, tossing a frisbee, or simply lounging and soaking it all in. Each night, we'll choose a campsite along the riverbanks. On day three, you'll have the chance to resupply at Sjambok.

Day 5:

On the final day, you'll be picked up at the S-bend endpoint between 2 PM and 4 PM. Congratulations! You've rafted approximately 75 km during your journey. We'll drive through the semi-desert back to base camp. After a refreshing swim, you can unwind with a few sundowners while the guides prepare dinner. You'll spend the night with us at the camp.

*Please note that the endpoint may change depending on water speed and levels.

Departure day:

After an unforgettable river journey, you're free to head home after breakfast.
