ORANGE RIVER – 1-DAY RAFTING TRIP

Arrival day:

Arrive at our base camp, just across the Namibian border, where our camp manager will be there to greet you. After your day of travel, you might enjoy a refreshing swim or a game of volleyball.

Dinner is served at 7 PM. Following that, we gather around the campfire to connect and go over the packing speech before turning in to rest for the exciting day ahead.

Day 1:

After an early breakfast, your guide will provide a safety briefing and equipment demonstration, teaching you how to paddle, what to do in case of a capsize, and how to stay safe in rapids. Before heading to the river, you can fill your cooler with ice. We'll then transport you to the launch point to begin your full day of rafting adventure.

You'll spend most of the morning drifting and getting comfortable with paddling, followed by lunch at our camp. We'll continue downstream until we reach your endpoint for the day, after which you'll be transported back to camp. It's time to relax or take a refreshing swim while enjoying some sundowners as the guides prepare dinner. You'll spend the night with us at the camp.

Departure day:

After an unforgettable journey on the river, you're welcome to head home the following morning after breakfast.
